FROM OUR FOUNDER

As an investor, we truly believe we can do well by doing good. We also believe we can start as early as possible. We don't have to wait till we become Bill Gates to give back. No contribution is too small.

Since our founding in 2016, we have been contributing part of our annual investment income to support our communities, schools and Asian cultural institutions.

2022 is the first year we are publishing our Annual Report to formalize our commitment and contributions.

Thank you for being a part of our journey.

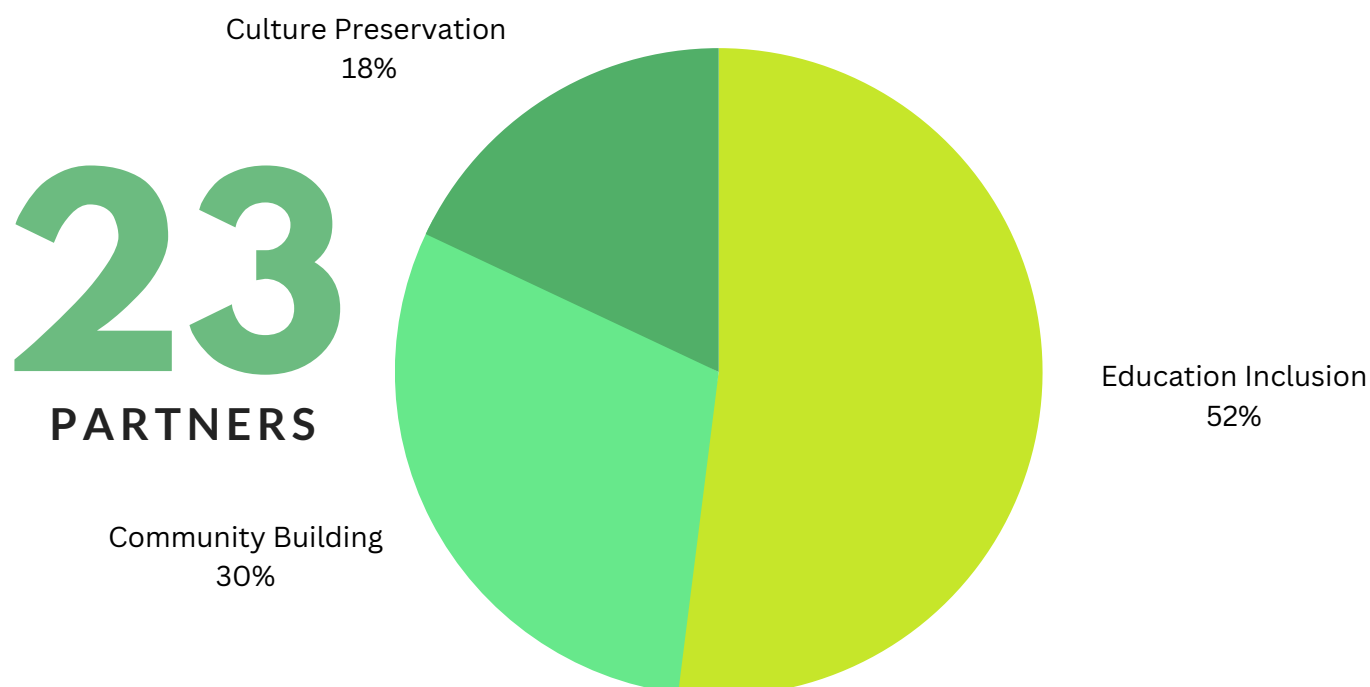

JERRY WANG

YEAR IN NUMBERS

Hi2 Foundation contributes part of our annual investment revenue to organizations providing scholarships to underprivileged talents, building bridges between the U.S. and China, as well as those celebrating Chinese and Asian cultures and traditions.

In 2022, we are proud to have contributed $112,000 to 23 partners in a non-operational capacity.

YEAR IN IMPACT

In 2022, Hi2 Foundation reached thousands of individuals across the continents through contributions towards scholarship opportunities such as the Greater China Scholars Program at Notre Dame University, towards higher education and professional development channels such as the Columbia China Forum at Columbia Business School, and towards cultural advancement programs such as the Huaxia Chinese School.

ASIAN CULTURE PARTNER HIGHLIGHT: HUAXIA CHINESE SCHOOL

The Huaxia Chinese School (HXCS) is dedicated to teaching Mandarin and Chinese culture classes. The largest of its kind in the United States, the school consists of 22 branches, serving over 7,000 students in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Connecticut.

In 2022, Hi2 Foundation supported Huaxia Chinese School and its branches to provide a variety of activities for students to develop a comprehensive sense of Chinese culture, including the Milburn Lunar New Year Festival, Huaxia New York Central Chinese School, Huaxia Cup Painting Contest, and Huaxia Chinese School 2022 Graduation Ceremony.

PARTNER HIGHLIGHT: THE GREATER CHINA SCHOLARS (GCS) PROGRAM

The Greater China Scholars (GCS) Program, the University of Notre Dame's premiere merit Scholars Program for international undergraduate students, was created with the recognition of the critical importance of encouraging exceptional students from around the world to attend Notre Dame. The program not only aims to attract the region's brightest, but also students with great capacity for global leadership and commitment to the betterment of society.

In addition to merit-based scholarships, the Program also provides Scholars with a full range of enrichment and mentorship programming to enhance their spiritual, intellectual, and leadership capacities throughout their undergraduate studies at Notre Dame.

Hi2 Foundation is proud to be a five-year supporter of the GCS Program.

PARTNER HIGHLIGHT: COLUMBIA CHINA BUSINESS CONFERENCE

Hi2 Foundation was a proud sponsor of The 14th Annual Columbia China Business Conference, held in April 2022 at Columbia Business School.

The theme of the conference was “Innovation And Transformation: Unfolding The Next Chapter.” The conference aimed to unfold China’s transformation. What are the innovations in China that the rest of the world can learn from? What are the key factors to drive China’s growth? What is the future of Chinese businesses, and more importantly, how should the world leverage growth opportunities in China?

The conference featured over 20 C-Suite speakers, 7 panels, and 9 streaming partners. Jerry Wang, Founder of Hi2 Foundation, spoke on the panel titled, “Capital Market - Embrace the New Normal of China's Capital Market.”

PARTNER HIGHLIGHT: THE CHINESE MUSIC ENSEMBLE OF NEW YORK

Founded in 1961 by its late Director, Mr. Tsuan-nien Chang (1917-1997), the Chinese Music Ensemble of New York (CMENY) has grown from a few music lovers presenting Cantonese traditional music to becoming the oldest and largest Chinese orchestra in the United States.

The CMENY leadership team, together with the acclaimed Conductor Jindong Cai, presented a concert program that featured the classical repertoire that CMENY is well known for, along with a few contemporary surprises.

The Chinese Music Ensemble of New York (CMENY) celebrated its 60th Anniversary Concert on June 18, 2022, at the Zankel Hall at Carnegie Hall in New York City.

OUR FUTURE

In the past eight years, Hi2 Foundation has been fortunate to have the opportunity to give back to our community through scholarship support, education advocacy, and community building activities.

In 2023, we have continued to contribute to organizations supporting causes in education, community building and cultural advancement, such as the Scarsdale Public Library, the Greater China Scholars Program (GCSP) at Notre Dame, the Tsinghua Alumni Association, and the Huaxia Chinese Academy.

As we continue our work in the years to come, we look forward to expanding the pathway towards a successful and collaborative future for all members of our community.

We are just getting started. Thank you for being a part of our journey.
